

Home-School Agreement 2018-19

As a student, I will:

- respect the mission and ethos of the school.
- demonstrate respect at all times and follow the 'Code of Conduct' in my school planner.
- promote the values of democracy, the rule of law, freedom of speech, freedom of thought and freedom of association and reject all forms of discrimination.
- attend every day, and arrive on time.
- dress correctly for school, including on all visits, and bring the necessary equipment each day.
- aim for the best possible standards in my studies and work to my full potential in all subjects.
- attend all intervention or revision sessions identified for me punctually.
- complete home study on time, to the best of my ability.
- care for the school environment and the environment in a wider sense.
- ensure that I use the internet safely and sensibly so that it does not bring harm to me or others.
- show my parent/carer my planner each week and remember to take home all messages, letters and Plashtet Post given by my Form Tutor and/or other members of staff.

As the parent(s)/carer(s), I/we will:

- respect the mission and ethos of the school and support the school's Code of Conduct.
- support the School by promoting the value of respect and attending parents' events offered by the School.
- promote the values of democracy, the rule of law, freedom of speech, freedom of thought and freedom of association and reject all forms of discrimination.
- support the School's efforts by encouraging the best possible standards in my daughter's studies.
- ensure my daughter attends school every day, and arrives on time.
- ensure my daughter punctually attends all intervention and revision sessions identified for her (these sessions are before or after school, at weekends or during school holidays).
- arrange all medical and dentist appointments after school or during school holiday time to ensure my daughter does not miss any learning time.
- organise family holidays outside of term-time so that no learning in school is missed.
- support the school's Home Study Policy by providing a quiet working area at home for my daughter to study.
- ensure my daughter arrives at school appropriately dressed and with the correct equipment every day.
- ensure my daughter uses the internet safely and sensibly so that it does not bring harm to her or others.
- attend all meetings as needed to discuss my daughter's progress and welfare.
- discuss my daughter's learning/progress with her regularly and sign her planner each week.
- contact the School if I have any concerns about my daughter's progress or welfare.
- agree that my daughter will take part in all areas of the curriculum.
- ensure the School has my/our up-to-date contact details as well as those of two other family members to enable them to make contact with me/us in an emergency.

As a school, we will:

- provide a safe, caring and stimulating environment that is true to our mission, inclusive ethos and seeks to safeguard our young women in the 21st Century.
- support the development of your daughter by fostering the value of respect in School.
- provide an inclusive educational offer that ensures equality of access for all.
- support the development of exemplary young leaders who uphold the values of democracy, the rule of law, freedom of speech, freedom of thought and freedom of association.
- encourage the highest expectations of our students. We will expect your daughter to attend school on time every day, ready to learn and keen to achieve.
- deliver a high powered, knowledge-based academic curriculum and set challenging academic targets that are appropriate to your daughter's ability and aspirations.
- inform you on a regular basis about your daughter's progress towards these targets, in an easily understandable form.
- ensure carefully focussed teaching and that lessons are well-planned and structured, and cater for your daughter's specific needs and ability.
- ensure that work is assessed regularly and positive feedback is given to your daughter on their progress and how they can improve further.
- organise and deliver intervention and revision sessions for your daughter where we feel that this is needed to help them reach the best possible grades.
- offer a rich and diverse leadership programme that grows character and inspires charitable and social action.
- arrange regular opportunities to meet with teachers to discuss your daughter's progress.
- support your daughter to use the internet safely and sensibly so that it does not bring harm to her or others.
- support your daughter to overcome any problems that hinder her learning and her personal development.
- make arrangements to meet with you within a reasonable time if you wish to come into school to discuss any matter.
